Life & Times Table of Contents

Updated Spring 2024

Volume 1, No. 1: March 1994

TFHS begins Heritage Survey project

The 1925 Carl Muller house and its 1854 predecessor, the George B. Folsom house

The 1854 George B. Folsom house

What did the 1854 George Folsom house look like?

The President's Column

Taylors Falls Historical Society Chapter News

TFHS caps 1993 activities with year-end Folsom House events

Other highlights of TFHS 1993

'93 membership drive tops goal

TFHS program plans for 1994

TFHS receives surprise gift: a remarkable Civil War period photograph of Taylors Falls

Tax Abatement for Residential Improvements

The old 'military road' through Taylors Falls

Point Douglas to Superior military road: Where in Taylors Falls/

1905, 1907 "love letter" talk about TF dam-site

Ione Kattenberg to Alford Roos

1907 letter to Alfred Roos from an unknown admirer in Wolverton

The Taylors Falls Journal, Nov. 11, 1943 ran a story, reprinted from a Battle Creek, Mich., paper, about Alford Roos, here's a portion:

Has anyone seen our Opera House?

Volume 1, No. 2: November 1994

TF's "Main Street" then and now

The Summer of 1994: Digging up Bench Street

TFHS finds a treasure tr0ove of 1860s photographs

Samuel S. Hamilton

Hamilton's 1865 photograph north along Bench Street from what is now U.S. Highway 8

The 1866 Hamilton house on Bench Street

Most recent ownership

An ownership history of Lot 49 Block 10

The 1871 Erastus Guard book case

Taxi Pete: A Bench Street Regular

A short history of Pete's cars

Doris Burris recalls postwar restaurant business

The President's column

Volume 2, No. 1: April 1995

TF's authentic 'Fifties drive-in turns 39'

The drive-in after 1982

Taylors Falls Historical Society Chapter News

1994 Program Highlights

Heritage Survey Project

Kahbakong Cemetery Tour, 'Ice Cream Social'

Pioneer School

River boat excursion

The Annual Recognition Dinner

Lifetime Award, recognizing and honoring Herbert Caneday

1994 Significant Achievement Award, Ella Heath

Our Folsom House holiday open house

Folsom House notes

Upcoming Programs

TFHS committee structure developed

Arts exhibit to celebrate Interstate Park Centennial

Acknowledgment of gifts to TFHS

The President's Column

A buggy collision and case in court – 1901

Marian Bryant Long's memory of the Taylors Falls Tornado of April 5, 1929

Ada Ogren pushed high school basketball for girls in 1915

Recollections of some other eye witnesses to the April 1929 tornado

Tracking down Taylors Falls' "lost" Opera House

Appearance & construction: reports from the scene

First Opera House destroyed by fire June 21, 1903

1899 Map of Bench-and-River streets area near the Opera House and the Sargent Studio destroyed by fire in 1903

Reader Comments

Volume 2, No. 2: November 1995 – Special Centennial Issue

Minnesota Interstate Park and a part of Taylors Falls "that once was"

The President's Column

George H. Hazzard – Founding Father of the Interstate Parks

"Milltown" Revisited

- Growth of Lower Town Industry
- Lower Town's Housing: Patterns of Growth and Decline 1859-1895
- A reconstruction of Lower Town ("Milltown") at its peak in the mid-1870s showing primary structures such as dwelling houses and major buildings
- Some of the "Pioneers" of Lower Town
- Wyman X. Folsom's sketch of "Milltown's" appearance in 1868
    - How it might translate to a true-scale late-1860s plat map?
- An Eagle's Eye View of Lower Town in 1892 – After the Decline
- 1895 – Milltown Ends; Minnesota's Second State Park Begins
- An eye witness view of the ghost of "Milltown" in the late 1910s by Charles O. Roos
- Highway 8, "Wild River Junction" and Later Changes to Park Boundary
- The Surviving Houses of Milltown
    - The Byron and Dolly Holmquist house, rural Dresser, was the "Goodsell Boarding House" in Lower Town Taylors Falls

The arrival of Pastor Fisk and the introduction of English services at TF Lutheran

The Goodsells & "Goodsell Hill"

Some activities of George Hazzard

Taylors Falls Historical Society Chapter News

- Some 1995 TFHS Activities
- Highlighting 1995 developments in Taylors Falls…
    - Remodeled and renovated 1892 Riley Sisters house
    - Renovated and restored 1857 Porter/Wall house
- Other TFHS news notes: looking ahead

Reader Comments

Volume 3, No. 1: Spring 1996

The second Taylors Falls Opera House

Legend & History: Celebration of themes from Vilhelm Moberg

The lost letter home

- Gustaf Lannestock's translation of the 1853 Oscar Roos Swedish letter

Oscar Roos's origins: conflicting tales

The President's Column

"Listening in…"

Listening in – "rubbering"

A brief telephone history of our area

Homage to Miss Shirley

Corrections

Stories from the Sunrise Ferry

Growing up in "the barrens"

The Sunrise ferry and other childhood memories

The ferry when we owned it

Some incidents at the ferry

Making a living in the barrens

The telephone, our house, the fire

Axel's garage

The Strand Nursery

Taylors Falls Historical Society Chapter News

TFHS at works: plans for 1996…and beyond

Town House School Committee

The Pioneer School Program

Heritage Survey Committee

Folsom House program

The second Taylors Falls Opera House

TFHS elects two new directors

Walking, driving tours in preparation

Reader Comments

Volume 3, No. 2: Fall 1996

125th Year for Taylors Falls Library

The Taylors Falls Library: the first 75 years (Written in 1946 by Frances Murdock)

And, in answer to Frances's request…

Besides start-up of the Library, this also happened in Taylors Falls 125 years ago…

A rare look at Colby Flat

The Wonderful Adventures of Nils: Origin and Significance

Illustrators' conceptions guided young readers' imaginations

City effort keeps Post Office in Taylors Falls with a new building

1996: From groundbreaking to completion

November 26, 1996 – 1996 moving day for TF Post Office

The old "new" Taylors Falls Post Office – Henry Schwegman recalls moving day 1961

Rural route consolidation proposed in 1963 – Evert Moberg, 34 years as mail carrier on the Taylors Falls rural route, retires at age 70 and does battle to save his Taylors Falls route

A History of Taylors Falls Post Office 1851-1961 (Written in 1961 by Evert Moberg)

1997 Calendar TFHS Programs and Events

Annual Taylors Falls limited edition Christmas ornaments in 12th year

Annual TF Lighting Festival themes, ornaments & artisans

Ray Donaldson, master wood carver

The President's Column

Just 3 days after Abraham Lincoln's assassination

With meat at 5 to 10 cents/lb.

Restoration, Remodeling and Razing: Some notable changes in Taylors Falls' structural landscape during 1995-1996

The 1860 John & Martha Smith house, 361 Military Road

c. 1873 Andrew Olson house, 490 West. St

Taylors Falls Historical Society Chapter News

Readings from "Dancing the Cows Home' by Sara De Luca highlight July meeting

Record attendance at the TFHS old fashioned summer lawn social in September

Among gifts to TFHS: historic oil painting

Cash award received from NSP

From an Iowa estate: 1888 photo of TF Kingsbury School

Ada Ogren, 1896-1996

Reader Comments

Volume 4, No. 1: Spring 1997

"A woman's life" in early Taylors Falls

In Search of Mary Jane

Lizzie Falk's letters of a farm wife

The President's Column

Hydrant on Walnut & Colby, probably original, on the main that brought water in 1925 to Falk house (in background)

A brief history of the Taylors Falls city water system

Repairing "Uncle Josh's" wall: Early stonework gets attention at Kahbakong Cemetery

I remember Mama.

Mrs. Peaslee – wife, mother, and…successful Taylors Falls businesswoman!

Taylors Falls Historical Society Chapter News

Volunteers help repair and refurbish Folsom House living quarters

Lawn Party planning inspires volunteers to pie making and stone masonry

Apropos This Issue

Volume 4, No. 2: Fall 1997

The 1851/1869 Schottmuller Building

One of the oldest buildings in town

History in the Abstract

Lot 5 – The jail house

The Samuel P. Holt Era

A Sheriff's Sale

The Schottmullers: 2nd Generation

Joseph B. Schottmuller: One man's family

Second Generation – Frank J.

"Mutt and Jeff"

Further notes on Schottmullers' Brewery, residences

…and on the Brewery's 1884 expansion

The President's Column

In Search of Mary Jane – Part II

Food for the farmhouse table

Anyone recognize these folks?

Margaret Stewart, Taylors Falls photographer

Types of 19th century photographic media

First photography studio in Taylors Falls

The 'Dells' – The little steamer that survived a crush of logs

Reader Comments

Volume 5, No. 1: Spring 1998

Letters home from Company C, 7th Regiment, Minnesota Volunteers: The day the Civil War reached Taylors Falls

The President's Column

The Civil War of Private Morton

Recap of Private Morton's travels

The "Saint Croix Rangers" Certificate

Travels of Company C in the South – see Wyman Folsom's story on pages 14 to 20

A capsule timetable of Civil War movements in the South by Company C and the Seventh Regiment, Minnesota Volunteer Infantry 1864-1865

Wyman Folsom's letters from the South

The Chisago Seminary – A brief sketch

Taylors Falls Historical Society Chapter News

Herbert Caneday

Mary Olson

TFHS Annual Meeting held May 7

President's review of the year's activities

Collections Committee

Program Committee

Publications Committee

Membership & Calling Committee

Town House School Committee

Pioneer School

Folsom House Property

Folsom House Committee

Fundraising and Publicity

Heritage Survey Committee

Folsom House signage

Highway Design Consultation

Work on City Hall Public Meeting Space

Five directors elected

Important By-laws Changes

TFHS board of directors to review membership dues this fall for 1999 changes

A tale of two houses

On Memorial Day at Kahbakong

Reader Comments

Volume 5, No. 2: Fall 1998

A 1913 school consolidation started it all…The birth of a school bus

The era of the one-room rural school house reached its peak in 1912

The Kingsbury School and its transformations 1888-1959

Lucas Kingsbury Stannard

The puzzle of the missing District No. 2

- Center City would have been a logical District No. 2
- The "missing" District No. 2 was in Taylors Falls
- Where are they now?

A walk around the block on Angel Hill

- Some remarkable photographs from the time of Nancy Guard's childhood recollections
- "Chilicoot Pass" yesterday and today

Octagons in the St. Croix Valley

Reader Comments

Volume 6, No. 1: Spring 1999

When toboggans zoomed by the Carding Mill

About the Carding Mill

A history of ownership of the 1852 day brothers' grist mill/carding mill

Editorial note

The Watermill poem

Spring beauties

Lost and found school bells…a few tales from then and now

Gourmet Food Dept: An occasional look at old recipes (dietary restriction advised)

Minnesota Territorial Sesquicentennial Edition: Fifty Years in the Northwest

- W.H.C. Folsom's 1888 classic in 1999 reprinting by Taylors Falls Historical Society

The School of Yesterday

- About the author: Grace Wilson Truesdell

Skating Near The Barn

Reader Comments

Volume 6, No. 2: Fall 1999

The day the land moved: downpour of 1879 triggered major erosion

Storm drainage project key to 1999 First Street roadway upgrade

- Elements of the 1999 First Street storm drainage installation

Charlie Roos' student years

Charlie's textbook cartoons

Editor's note

A recently acquired photo of the Taylors Falls Carding Mill

A bird's-eye view of the Taylors Falls mill pond and its surroundings, circa 1910

Here are the names from our "old photo" quiz in the Spring 1999 issue

Folsom House 'walk-in' visitor totals hold strong despite street detours

Stereograph

Reader Comments

Volume 7, No. 1: Spring 2000

Two intriguing architectural drawings found: one is of "Dellview," and the other is believed to be a design for the first County courthouse

Who's who in the early Franconia School District

Founding of a pioneer school district: Franconia school district

Franconia village layout as shown in the 1888 plat map

Splitting the St. Croix Valley along the riverway: The boundary battle of the 1840s

Early leaders who were part of both towns' historical development

The President's Column

A Saint Croix landmark preserved

The Stannard family's involvement in promoting public education

Gifts to the Society

"Salt Lantern, Traces of an American Family"

A church of a different color

A Tale from the 1850s

Volume 7, No. 2: Fall 2000

Early log drives and dramatic log jams on the St. Croix River left many logs underwater: Second harvest: Depression era industry

Found! A pictorial treasure: Earliest known photo of Taylors Falls, dates to late 1854

The George B. Folsom House on River Street – a revisiting

Some thoughts on Thomas Gifford's legacy for Taylors Falls

How Taylors Falls came to be chosen as the setting for 'The Wind Chill Factor'

The Folsom/Moberg Farm – retreat or development site?

Can any of our readers identify where this Taylors Falls sidewalk is located?

The distinctive design of the Kingsbury School

History of Palmdale in Shafter Township, Chisago County, Minnesota, USA

From the Taylors Falls Journal

The President's Column

Reader Comments

Volume 8, No. 1: Spring 2001

A town in motion: Buildings on the move

- Early examples of house moving
- Interstate Park houses
- Location of Taylors Falls building that didn't stay put
- Houses moved into town from outside
- "Freeway houses"
- Oldest house came from Stillwater
- Churches and schools
- Bench Street houses
- Moves elsewhere in town
- "Lost landmarks"
- Step by Step: Moving the Fox House from downtown to Angel Hill
- Taylors Falls' unique tradition

The Taylors Falls mill pond in summer: two early 20th century view

Memories of ice skating on the Taylors Falls Mill Pond

The record breaking flood of April, 2001

Reader Comments

Volume 8, No. 2: Fall 2001

"The Hermit of Cherry Hill"

Where Joe Rafter's house was located

Bedtime Folk's Friend Is Hermit of Cherry Hill

Irving Olson's 1981 field notes: Traces of first Stillwater-to-Taylors Falls road

Daniel Fredeen family and their 1853 farmhouse in the early 1870s

Book review by Joanne Frank: "A Small Yellow House"

The President's Column

Recent development in Historic Taylors Falls

1851-2001 Sesquicentennial for Taylors Falls' first plat map

Reminiscences by W.X. Folsom

Winter sports in Taylors Falls in January 1913

Don Doane's epic experience Moving the "McKusick"

Volume 9, No. 1: Spring 2002

Once again fire challenges the town's business district

A Quick History of the Livery Mall Building

Design guidelines task force appointed by Taylors Falls City Council

What did it look like? Comparing the Taylors Falls downtown business district of 100 years ago with that of today – a dramatic reduction in size and scope

In the beginning…

The Hauser-Ellison building

Layers of remodeling

A closer look at First Street Buildings

A Quick History of the Livery Mall

Bench Street buildings and styles

A Primer on Architectural Styles

Additional views of Bench Street commercial business buildings

The Taylors Falls Creamery building

Adapting historic styles can be easy, cost effective

The shape of design guidelines being considered by the City's Task Force…will need tailoring to the special conditions of the B-1 Business district

Case examples: Recent remodeling and new construction using heritage-sensitive design

Historical Society News

Member Meeting Programs

Society Business Matters

Folsom House Building Repairs

Taylors Falls Recent Developments

Livery Mall destroyed by fire, January, 2002

Volume 9, No. 2: Fall 2002

Home grown industry: Strand's Nursery marketed nationwide

George Strand builds a nursery business

Strand Nursery begins 1898

World War I: Era of growth and challenge

The 1920s: Strand's Nursery phases out of animal raising sideline

Mail Order business builds on native plants dug from the "Big Nursery"

Depression deals a blow to Strand's Nursery business

George Strand's son Carson moves, reshapes Strand nursery business

100 Years Ago – September 20, 1902: Fire destroys much of Taylors Falls' downtown

Eyewitness 1902 fire experiences recalled in 1964 interviews

Thumbnail sketch of appearance and history of use of the buildings lost to the September, 1902 Taylors Falls fire

View west on First Street four years before the fire

Historical Society News

Microfilming W.H.C. Folsom's 19th century business records

Women's Civic League honored in 90th year

Eliot M. Martinson & Martinson's Hardware

A few further items about Strand's Nursery

Digging ferns for Strand's Nursery: some childhood recollections

Where was Strand's Nursery

The President's Column

Reader Comments

Volume 10, No. 1: Spring 2003

Bench Street parade May 27, 1934 was one of two 1934 ceremonies honoring veterans

Newspaper reports concerning the 1934 Flagpole Dedication

Newspaper announcements of the 1934 Events

Earliest Memorial Days at Taylors Falls

Printed 4-page program for Taylors Falls decoration day observance, May 30, 1900

A Very Special Artifact

A look at the First Street/Bridge approach area at the time of the 1934 city flagpole dedication

The 1955 change in bridge alignment

Speaking of bridges…High Water – June, 1880 drew townsfolk on a sunny day to pose for the photographer around a partly collapsed bridge approach

Here's what the press had to say about the 1880 flood

Irving J. Olson, 1915-2002

The 1872 J. H. McCourt House

A Bit of Sweden…Smorgasbord on Bench Street

Correction

The President's Column

Sergeant Lufkin, Gettysburg casualty from Taylors Falls

Does this locket have a Civil War connection?

A note about Lufkin and Taylors Falls' Civil War connection

Reader Comments

Volume 10, No. 2: Fall 2003

A view from a paper route: A boy's life in a 1950s small town

Places named by Ward Moberg (numbered in order of mention)

The President's Column

The Snack Bar

The Taylors Falls Historical Society observes its 25th anniversary

Next, the Town House project

A New State Law Was Needed

A Pictorial mini-history of the 1852 schoolhouse/town hall

Life & Times milestone: 10 years of publication, award received

Downtown building reaches 150th year: Smith-Hauser building, much remodeled, moved since first built in 1853

Long and varied transformation recorded in photographs

Four TF buildings mark a century

Taylors Falls establishes Historic Preservation Commission

In this April, 1865 photo

Reader Comments

Volume 11, No. 1: Spring 2004

Folsom House marks its 150th year

Green Timber: A collection of clippings from newspapers published in the chosen valley

Who was Peter Stoneroad?

Map 1 – Greater St. Croix Valley area setting for most of Roos' Green Timber stories

Map 2 – In-town locations cited in Roos' Green Timber stories

Background about the writing of Charles O. Roos' Green Timber and this two-issue report

Volume 11, No. 1: Spring 2004

Charlie Roos: A Brief Biographical Sketch

Green Timber, Part II

150th Anniversary of Charlie's "Hut" – 2004

The Antowine

Henry Lundberg

"My friend comes home" – Frank "Gabe" Gibbs (Dec. 31, 1871 – Oct. 25, 1918)

Folsom House marks its 150th year

Volume 12, No. 1: Spring 2012

Flying high and low in Taylors Falls (the Rivard airport)

Exploring for copper in Taylors Falls

Remembering Arbor Day at the Folsom House during a special year - 2005

Photographic views of the 4th bridge

1882 Minnesota State geology report

Volume 12, No. 2: Fall 2012

Letters to home from young Taylors Falls volunteers help tell the story of…The Minnesota frontier in the Civil War: Part I

Covering August 1862 to November 1862: Company C recruits enlisted at Taylors Falls, sworn in at Fort Snelling, marched north to Fort Ripley

The Chippewa Disturbance of 1862

The President's Column

Travels of Company C, 7th Minnesota Volunteers, first deployment, Aug. to Dec. 1862

Indians in Minnesota in the early 1800s – major trails, villages, missions, U.S. gov't posts, and forts – Tribal territories under the Chippewa-Sioux Treaty of 1825

Crow Wing Village and the Red River Cart

Quilts and Quilting in the Civil War Era

Contractors Overcomes Difficulties of Winter Construction on Highway Job

Looking Ahead…

Quilt Show at the Folsom House

Volume 13, No. 1: Spring 2013

The Minnesota frontier in the Civil War: Part II

Camp Release; Indian court martials

Transfer of Indian Prisoners to Mankato

Execution of 38 Sioux Indians

Travels of Company C, 7th Minnesota Volunteers, second deployment, Dec. 1862 to May, 1863 period covered by Wyman Folsom and Andrew Colby letters home

Trip to Davenport with prisoners

Removal of Indians from Fort Snelling

Removal of Winnebago Indians

Captive Sioux Indians in fenced enclosure on Minnesota River below Fort Snelling, 1862-63

The year Taylors Falls printed paper money

Highlights of its first decade: The TF Heritage Preservation Commission

Individual structures designated by the Heritage Preservation Commission

City's "Bill Scott Day" recognized Bill's key role in our community's historic preservation successes

The President's Column

Bullard/Owens house, 537 Bench Street

History

Architecture

Tale of a Lonesome Pine

A note on the large panoramic painting used as our page 1 illustration

Other Taylors Falls connections to the August 1862 Sioux attacks

Volume 13, No. 2: Fall 2013

TF Depot railing restoration project completed

Angel Hill Heritage Preservation District

Wall/Porter house, 573 Bench Street

Where have we been and where are we going?

The President's Column

A dwelling proposed for Taylors Falls? (Samuel McSpedon)

W. H. C. Folsom/Knowlton House, Prairie du Chien: another Folsom historic house

Volume 14, No. 1; Spring 2014

Dr Lucius Smith, 1864 Civil War Casualty

The best axe handles ever

The Taylors Falls Public Library, 473 Bench Street

2013 Taylors Falls Public Library restoration project

S. C. Sargent

William Sargent, Pioneer in Radiology

President's Column

An album of Sargent photos

Volume 14, No. 2; Fall 2014

Dr. Charles and Grace Truesdell

Church of St. Joseph, begun in 1852

St. Joseph's Altar Society, established by the women of St. Joseph's

Vol. 14 continued

President's Column

Highlights from the life of Dr. Lucius Smith, Civil War Surgeon

What were Ohio's Firelands?

Short history of Taylors Falls Library Association (1871-1919), Forerunner of the 1919 Taylors Falls Public Library

Centennial Anniversary of the St. Croix Hyrdoelectric Dam

Volume 15, No. 1; Spring 2015

Trapped (the story of the Margaret Stewart photo of the steamer Mayflower trapped in a log jam

We remember their contributions: John Jackson, Ella Heath, and Ken Anderson

Early haying in Shafer

1869 Bullard/Daubney house, 767 River Street

Daniel Mears, Taylors Falls and Chisago County's first storekeeper

Susan Thomson Mears, Taylors Falls and Chisago County's first teacher

President's Column

The former Triple Glen Farm: the story of a farm and its occupants

Hews piano at the Folsom house

In the TFHS collection: a look at three items: 1) metal post card; 2) 1937 first flight envelope and 3) an 1861 letter to Mary Jane Folsom and (her sister) Helen Lacy on the death of their father

In an earlier era, ash houses served real needs

Recorded history corrected - correcting errors in Wyman X. Folsom's history of the schools in Taylors Falls as printed in the 1918 high school year book, The Dalles.

Reader's comments

Volume 16, No. 2; Fall 2015

If the steeple could speak...155 years of the Lutheran congregation in Taylors Falls

The affair at Stannard's Meadow, copied from Irving J. Olson's Smolenning Slekt, printed in 1973.

Johnny Moochy, the Magnificent, once operated the King Tut Inn

Let's go to the fair! The Taylors Falls Agricultural and Driving Park Association

The President's Column

The Friendly Valley Association influenced tourism to our area

Harold H. MacLean, Taylors Falls High School graduate excels in the advertising world

Taylors Falls Township - Shafer Township, the township that was renamed

Volume 16, No. 1; Spring 2016

The 1856 Joshua L. Taylor house, also known as Dellview and as the Taylor Place Summer Hotel

The President's Column

Stanley's Standard Service & Nelson's Garage & Tire Shop

The 1902 Northern Pacific Railway station and original floor plan

Taylors Falls' Two Opera Halls, 1888-1903 and 1903-1948

A Chronology of Taylors Falls newspapers

A community celebrates together: Home coming and university week, June 6-13, 1915

A short church history: The Presbyterian Church of Taylors Falls

John Dillinger visited Shafer, Minnesota

Working computer magic, splicing a torn photograph used in the Lutheran church history of Vol. 15, No. 2

Volume 16, No. 2; Fall, 2016

When circuses came to Taylors Falls, recounting nine circuses that came to Taylors Falls

Wisconsin boys swam the river to see the circus in Taylors Falls

A short history of the Taylors Falls United Methodist Church, replete with many photos

Red Letter Dates in the history of Taylors Falls

Semi-trailer wreck on Taylors Falls hill; six horses killed in crash; two men in cab jump to escape death

Tinsmith, hardware dealer and civic leader...Benjamin Clayton

The President's Column

WHC Folsom introduced bill passed by the Minnesota Legislature in 1869 outlawing racial segregation in education

Recent donation to TF Historical Society: leather-covered photo album, stamped Taylors Falls, Minn.

Volume 17, No. 1; Spring 2017

A visit to a large beaver dam near Taylors Falls

Pictorial history of downtown Taylors Falls before the 1902 fire

Daryl Wangen remembered

The President's column

Boy Scouts in Taylors Falls in the 1920s

The Bryant family in Taylors Falls

Volume 17, No. 2; Fall 2017

Peter Trumps 1870 Cave Saloon building

Chisago House barn

Bill Scott's many contributions remembered

Martin A. Tangen, Served as local pharmacist for 46 years

Sinclair Lewis in Taylors Falls in 1942

Front door to the Munch/Roos house

Silas Humphrey's 1867 building...A fixture on Bench Street for 150 years

Civil War soldiers buried in Kahbakong Cemetery

School bus parade of 1941

Did giant beavers build a dam on the wrong side of Colby Lake?

Fourth of July in Taylors Falls, 1891

Volume 18, No. 1; Spring 2018

Mary Jane Folsom, Part III

Lost Taylors Falls (the built environment)

Arthur J Rivard, entrepreneur

Arthur J Rivard, expert witness

Wannigan Point Cabin Court

Union House picture

Volume 18, No. 2; Fall 2018

The bridges at Taylors Falls

St. Croix Bridge Company

W.H.C. Folsom business records held by the society

Jim Washington, a kind & gentle black man

Riley Sisters house

1896 Republican congressional district convention

A young lad recalls school days in Taylors Falls

Excerpts from 1880s school board minutes

Union House boarding house/hotel

The human value of rummage sales

Volume 19, No. 1; Spring 2019

1930 Community play: "Safety First"

Historic log jam of 1886

The Kingsbury school: events leading up to the construction of building

Louise Stannard Lundberg's life in Taylors Falls

A brief history of the Taylors Falls railroad

The John A. Whitney House

Taylors Falls History up to 1860 as printed in the Taylors Falls Reporter

The President's Column

Four buildings served as railroad depots

1914-1917 post office window donated to the society

Volume 19, No. 2: Fall 2019

Hotel Cocheco

The President's Column

Oscar Weslander photo

Mr. (Holger) Moberg, a well-loved teacher

Chillicoot Pass

Little red book: pen and ink drawings of St. Croix River Dalles

Chisago House register

"Wyman X" birthday tour: a memorable river event of 1870

Blue Bird Inn

Franconia Cemetery records

Caspar Hauser and his rental house

Bates & Ellison barn built in 1871

Taylors Falls news locals of October 12, 1944

Woodbury and Gibbs tintype

Volume 20, No. 1: Spring 2020

The mighty, mighty Bluejays of 1967

Hazel (Thoen) Hood, Spanish flu victim

Interstate State Park - recollections by Lowell M. Caneday

A little learning is a dangerous thing - short writings from the "Hilltop Herald," Kingsbury school newspaper.

Snow trains of early 1939

Recognition of contributions by Dorothy Berntson and Clayton Rivard
Former T.F. girl sees the world during WWI - Stella S. MacLean's story
Shooting affair of 1891 - death of Frederick Tang, Jr.
The President's column
Late 1920s post office photo

Volume 20, No. 2: Fall 2020

Establishment and history of Kahbakong Cemetery
Kahbakong Cemetery Association officers through the years
Axel Berg, the man who dug graves at Kahbakong, records kept from 1908-1923
The historic (Lucas Kingsbury) Stannard house/farm
Supreme Court decision regarding cows in Interstate State Park, 1913
My school memories as told by Jerry Vitalis
A Legend of the St. Croix, a story about a young couple in love, and the Devil's Chair rock formation
The President's column
History of Taylors Falls Goodfellowship Club
Chisago County's first newspaper publisher - Capt. Frank H. Pratt
Picture of Kingsbury School 5th and 6th grade students, circa 1925

Volume 21, No. 1: Spring 2021

Dresser-Murdock house
Lynn Longnecker's biography: Raised by a village
Riverwalk timber-frame bridge project
Minnie Ekdahl's recollections of growing up on Angel Hill
Historical society news
Henry A. Wallace, Vice President of the USA (1941-1945): his connection to Taylors Falls
Pioneer school news
Folsom House exterior renovation
Creation of the society's archival room
Remembering "End of the Emigrant Trail" celebration in 1996 (150 years)
"Meeting the evening train," from 1942 newspaper, by "Old Time" Geneva Smith Folsom
Rules & regulations of school district no. 14
Photo from 1915-16 of school buses parked near Methodist church

Volume 21, No. 2: Fall 2021

The story of Annie Lindgren's life as told by Ward Moberg

Stories from the Justice of Peace record books

Excerpts from Marvin Palmquist's memoirs of growing up in Taylors Falls

President's column

Photos of Dr. Horace Murdock's medical tools

Photos and information on 6 houses 100 or 150 anniversaries

The Charles Vitalis' unexpected trip to Sweden, and the community's concerns

Pioneer home remedies

Photo of the 1930 Taylors Falls High School band

Volume 22, No. 1: Spring 2022

Kattenberg Family

History of the Nellie Kent (steamboat)

Dates of steamboat arrivals in Taylors Falls each spring

High school records, 1915 and following

Grand Army of the Republic

1901 view of downtown

Hauser house and business building

Richard W. Sears, second RR agent and found of Sears & Roebuck catalog

"Here on Earth," 1999 movie production in Taylors Falls

Former West Street house

Three articles about the interesting life of Alford Roos

Nathaniel L. Bailey, business man in the 1800s

1905 photo of the Dalles House hotel (on site of current - 2022 - Chisago House Restaurant

Volume 22, No. 2: Fall 2022

William S. Dedon's diary excerpts

Logging on the St. Croix River

Early pioneer anecdotes

Milltown revisited

1866 Hamilton house

New shed at Kahbakong Cemetery

W.H.C. Folsom's 1854 barn

A courthouse that was never built

Society activities in 2022
Erastus Guard's 1871 book case
Marston Drug Store photo

Volume 23, No. 1: Spring 2023

A tribute to Clarence Nelson
TFHS Remembers the Nelsons
President's column
45 year anniversary of TFHS
Early photos of Interstate State Park
French fort at Taylors Falls
W. X. Folsom's map of Milltown
Post Office ledgers donated to Society
September 20, 1902 fire
Recollections of the 1902 fire
Life of Judge Humphrey
Patrick Fox house photos
Letters lost and found
Early Highway 8 photos
Interesting finds in old newspapers

Volume 23, No. 2: Fall 2023

Short history of Val Croix Ski area
Items seen about town
History of Franconia
Franconia ordinances and cemetery association minutes
Maps of historic areas of Taylors Falls
Great Almelund bank heist
Taylors Falls class of 1947
President's column
Images of the 1852 Town House School as seen over the years
1912 Farmers Interstate Creamery

Volume 24, No. 1: Spring 2024

Falls Café & Chisago House Restaurant

Mrs. Root's Family Hotel

The ox car road

Effinger's ranch/farm

President's column

Dr. Verner Heseltine

Women's Civic League

Our Town excerpts

Dalles Farmers Feed Mill/Taylors Falls Feed Mill

News from 125 years ago

Early library history

Library remodel of 1975-76

Wannigan on the flowage